wehrli@gold2000.ch

Walter Wehrli was born in the Swiss town of Schaffhausen in 1964. He obtained his undergraduate degree in economics in Zurich and started his career in trading at Banque Louis Dreyfus. Walter joined UBS in 1992, where he became the deputy head of emerging markets and commodities. He is currently CEO of his own fund management company and specialises exclusively in gold mining.

Walter's active investment style is purely bottom-up and thrives in environments with negative real interest rates. Away from investment management, Walter enjoys sports – golf, tennis, football and skiing. He is also a music fan and likes going to the cinema.
